What we know about campus climate

A) Maslow’s hierarchy of needs emphasizes the importance of meeting the need for safety before any other needs can be met.

B) Without a sense of safety essential psychological, cognitive and physical development, along with learning and an overall sense of well-being can not happen.

LGBT students report not feeling safe on campus*.